

Training for ISO IEC 27001 Information
Security Management Standards

Training for ISO IEC 27001 Information Security Management Standards

Introduction:

During an intensive training course, you will gain a comprehensive and comprehensive understanding of the requirements of an information security management system. 27001, by reviewing the specification items in detail and identifying the intent and requirements of each item, In addition to learning about the concepts of the organization's context and risk management, and increasing your skills in identifying and analyzing Risks associated with information security.

Recently, with the increased reliance on technology in daily life and the increased amount of data flowing between Companies and their clients, there seemed to be a clear increase in companies' interest in implementing advanced security management systems. And the confidentiality of information to prove its ability to keep data safe from hacking, loss or misuse, and In preparing specialists who are able to understand ISO, the importance of obtaining a training course in 27001 is highlighted. Requirements and provisions of ISO 27001 and obtaining the necessary skills to create, document, maintain and update ISO is an information security management system in accordance with International Standard 27001.

Course Contents:

- Introduction to the Information Security and Confidentiality Management System No. 27001 From Clause 4 to Clause 10 of ISO
- Explanation and review of the provisions of Specification 27001
- Requirements to determine the context of the organization and interested parties
- How to determine the scope of the information security management system and the processes necessary for the system
- Leadership and senior management's commitment to the information security system
- Analyzing and identifying risks associated with the information security system
- Identifying the necessary resources to build a system that guarantees the confidentiality and protection of information ISO
- Selection and qualification of human resources in accordance with the requirements of ISO 27001
- Planning operational processes to manage the information security and confidentiality system.
- Monitor, measure and analyze system operations
- Detection of non-conformities and corrective actions
- Internal audit and management review of the information security system
- Continuous improvement of the information security management system